Unscientific programmes on TV

*240. SHRI S.K. KHABIR UDDIN AHMED: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that electronic media often telecast unscientific serials on ghosts and super powers;

(b) whether Government agree that such programmes have serious adverse effects on both children's and adult's mind creating baseless beliefs; and

(c) if so, the action being taken by Government to stop such unscientific programmes on TV screen?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI PRIYARANJAN DASMUNSI): (a) Yes Sir, some reports have been received on similar subject.

(b) No such study has been brought to the notice of the Government.

(c) All programmes of sateltite TV channels transmitted or re-transmitted through cable service are required to adhere to the provisions of the Programme/Advertising Codes prescribed under the Cable Television Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 and rules framed thereunder. The Programme Code inter-alia prohibits carriage of any programme that encourages superstition, blind belief, denigrates children etc. The provisions of the Code are given in the enclosed statement (see below). With a view to look into the violation of the Programme/Advertising Codes, the Central Government has constituted an Inter-ministerial Committee under Section 20 of the Act. The Committee either suo-motu or on receipt of complaints, examines cases of violation of the Codes. If any violation is noted by the Committee, the same is communicated to the Government and action is taken against the TV channels as per rules, thereafter.
